

Patrick Comer Courage Foundation, Saint John's Benefit

Picture from left to right: Dr. Michael Blute, Director of The Cancer Center for Excellence UMass Memorial Hospital, Tom Simisky, Saint John's High School, Jim Comer, President of the Patrick Comer Courage Foundation, and Alex Zequeira, President of the Nativity School Worcester

On October 27th, 2011, The Patrick Comer courage Foundation was honored at an assembly of the student body at Saint John's High School for its support to local cancer patients and their families, as well as their restricted aid scholarships for graduates of Worcester's Nativity School to attend Saint John's.

Jim Comer addressed the assembly on the Foundation's mission. Dr. Blute talked about the Foundation's work with the Pancreatic Cancer alliance and its support to the pancreas program At UMass Memorial. Tom Simisky, Saint John's, spoke about the synergy between Nativity Schools and great high schools like Saint John's.

Both Dr. Blute and Tom Simisky are graduates of Saint John's, and have gone on to make great contributions to the lives of others.

The assembly raised over $1500 for the Foundation.